

LUZERNE
CONSERVATION DISTRICT

Conserving Natural Resources for Our Future

Conservation Technician

The Luzerne Conservation District is accepting applications for seasonal field technicians for the Mosquito-borne Disease Control Program.

Employment will be 30-40 hours per week for 21-23 weeks (late-April to late-September). Pay range is $20.16 – $20.46 per hour and is dependent upon relevant training and experience.

A job description, including functions and qualifications, can be accessed by clicking here.

Click here to access the online application

Direct any questions to hire@luzernecd.org

Applications must be received no later than 4:00PM on April 3, 2026.

The Luzerne Conservation District is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

